

A person in a dark suit and striped tie is pointing their right index finger directly at the viewer. The background is a blurred office setting. The text is overlaid on the top right of the image.

WANT TO BECOME A REGIONAL VICE PRESIDENT?

If you are interested in being considered for a Regional Vice President position, please review the requirements below.

Requirements:

- Be a CRS Designated member in good standing with the Council
- Have remained active in the State RRC and have current knowledge of the Council's structure and programs
- Be able to attend two national meetings per year, the Leadership Conference, and travel (optional) within his/her region to assist State Leadership Teams
- Has served not more than two Regional Vice President Terms for the Council

Eligible members are invited to apply for a position or nominate a member they feel would be a good candidate provided they meet all eligibility requirements. Applications will open in Spring of 2020 on crs.com.

ENCOURAGE:

Foster State participation in Council programs such as CRS Week and RRC with a Heart.

Assist the States to grow and develop their Network Groups—and urge them to host events

Encourage State Leadership Teams to develop contacts with State Associations and Local Boards to partner with events and courses

Suggest that Leadership Teams sponsor booths at their State and Local conventions to promote membership, value and the CRS Designation

Urge State Leadership teams to recognize their new CRS Designees in their local markets

Identify and nurture members with Leadership skills and encourage them to get involved

ATTEND:

Attend May and November Council meetings and report updates to State Leadership team members not in attendance.

Attend the Annual Leadership Conference (Prior to SAB)

Optional: Visit State Leadership team in conjunction with an important meeting and/or event.

- Trips must be pre-approved
- Limited one trip per state

THE ROLE OF THE REGIONAL VICE PRESIDENT

COMMUNICATE:

Establish monthly contact with each State President (and other leadership team members) in your Region. Provide them with the best method of communicating with you.

Share knowledge, information and best practices with Leadership teams.

Recognize significant activities within the region. Identify opportunities or programs within the region.

Provide special attention to those States that are weak and struggling.

Communicate achievements and struggles of your states with the Council.