

Four New Career Development Programs Will Better Equip Real Estate Industry Professionals

MentorBoard

Every step of a career journey is impacted by access to resources and opportunities. RRC has launched a MentorBoard— an easy-to-use platform for agents seeking mentorship and those interested in mentoring to connect with each other.

Career Path

RRC's latest tool to help individuals determine if they have the right skills and experience to succeed in a residential real estate position. These quick assessments provide a custom analysis designed to help you grow professionally.

Careers in Real Estate

To help members further their careers and achieve their goals for professional growth, RRC has launched a job board called Careers in Real Estate. In addition to an optimal job posting and searching experience, the site has professional resources, including career advice articles, free resume critiques and more.

HR Consulting

The Council will provide broker/owners with one-on-one consulting services that focus on three key factors that drive office success: Recruitment, Retention, and Professional Development. Brokers will receive dedicated assistance on assessing team needs, creating a meaningful professional development plan, attracting new talent and much more.
